Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time October 8, 2017

Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God.

— Philippians 4:6

Vigésimo Séptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 8 de octubre de 2017

No se inquieten por nada; más bien presenten en toda ocasión sus peticiones a Dios en la oración y la súplica, llenos de gratitud.

- Filipenses 4:6

Dear God,

At this Mass, please give me the grace I need to refrain from judging any heart but my own. Give me the grace I need to mean the prayers I speak, intend the gestures I make and pray the songs I sing. Dear God, please help me not pull back in judgement but lean forward and Pray this mass with Love. ~ Amen

Querido Dios,

En esta misa, por favor, dame la gracia que necesito Absténgase de juzgar cualquier corazón que no sea el mío. Dame la gracia que necesito para significar las oraciones que hablo, la intención de los gestos que hago y rezar las canciones que canto. Dios mío, por favor, ayúdame a no retroceder en el juicio, pero inclínate hacia adelante y ora esta misa con amor. Amén

COLUMBUS DAY

The Parish Offices will be Close on Monday October 9 for Columbus Day.

Special collection

Archbishop Coakley has authorized a second special emergency collection to benefit those impacted by Hurricane Maria and from the earthquakes in Mexico will be taken on the weekend of Oct. 7-8. People can donate online at www.archokc.org/special collections.

BEARING THE RIGHT KIND OF FRUIT

Today's readings focus our attention on vineyards. Isaiah's song concerning his friend's vineyard begins with inspiring and poetic images of an idyllic vineyard where the choicest harvest is expected. Instead, the vineyard yields wild grapes, which causes the owner to abandon it. The psalmist cries out to God, asking that God once again take care of the vineyard, which is the house of Israel. The parable told in today's Gospel offers a stern warning that those who commit treachery in the hopes of attaining personal wealth will be "put . . . to a wretched death" (Matthew 21:41). Jesus warns his listeners not to act like the murderous tenants in the vineyard. Instead he exhorts them to produce the kind of fruit that will lead them to the kingdom of God.

ATTENTION ALL WOMEN OF HOLY NAME OF JESUS!

The Catholic Daughters of the America, court of St. Teresa are having a new membership drive and would like to invite all women of Holy Name over the age of 18 to a wine & cheese party on October 10th at 6:30 PM. Learn about Catholic Daughter's and all that we do! We will have information, pictures and everything that we do will be available. We will also be having a quick meeting before the wine and food begin so you can see how our meetings are conducted. We look forward to seeing you and hopefully join us in this very worthy organization!

WILL AND ESTATE PLANNING

Decisions about your estate plans are some of the most important you will make. Are you prepared? We can help. Catholics from all parishes are invited to attend one of the seminars during Wills and Trusts Week, October 9 thru October 17.

Estate Planning is the process of anticipating and arranging for the disposal of your assets when you die. Estate planning typically attempts to eliminate uncertainties over that transition. As you prepare your will or trust be sure to communicate your Catholic values which should include a Catholic Healthcare Directive and Durable Power of Attorney. These documents should be included in any estate plan to communicate your wishes with healthcare decisions and to assign a person to act on your behalf should you be unable to do so.

From Fr. Prasad

LORD MAKE ME A CHANNEL OF YOUR PEACE."

One morning a little girl, dressed in spotless white, with a lovely bouquet of flowers in her hand, passed by a boy who was playing in the dusty street. The sight of this pretty girl stirred the spirit of mischief in the boy's heart and in no time a handful of dust struck the clean white dress and spattered on her shining shoes.

The girl stopped still. Her face flushed pink. Her lips trembled as if she would cry.

But instead, a smile broke on her face and taking a flower from her bouquet, she handed it to the boy who stood waiting to see what she was going to do.

A more surprised boy no one ever saw or more heartily ashamed! He hung his head and his cheeks reddened under the tan and freckles. His unkind fun was quite spoiled because in return for a handful of dust someone had handed him a flower. How changed this world would be if everybody, big or small, acted like this little girl!

"Lord make me a channel of your peace."

TRUE WEALTH

Measure wealth not by the things you have, but by the things you have for which you would not take money.
